Treasurers Report – Robert Gordon Trustee

RG stated that at first glance the accounts for the year show a large deficit of £67k.

The majority of this was planned as £43k was utilised from the designated funds in the year for wheelchairs and research grants. The deficit on the conference last year was also £16k.

There was a legacy received in the year but the research grants and wheelchair grants where a result of the large legacy received some years ago which was designated into certain areas for expenditure.

Whilst other costs were in line with the previous year income from donations was down 18% on the previous year but fundraising was down 46%.

Brittle Bone Society like the majority of other charities will also see a further decrease in fundraising income this year due to the number of events that have been cancelled due to the coronavirus epidemic.

The charity remains healthy with over a years’ worth of expenditure in reserves where you would usually aim for 6 months.
